The Word of God for the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Blindness, spiritual sight, and discipleship

In Mark's gospel Jesus began his journey to Jerusalem in 8:22, and in this Sunday's gospel he has just about arrived: this is the last event prior to his triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday. The journey began with the healing of a blind man (8:22-26) and now it ends with the healing of blind Bartimaeus (10:46-52). Between these two stories of blindness we find the three passion predictions, each one followed by a graphic and embarrassing presentation of the disciples' spiritual blindness as they fail to understand Jesus' identity and mission. This journey to Jerusalem is Jesus' last attempt to open the eyes of their understanding, to help them to see both who he is and what discipleship means.

The first story about a blind man (8:22-26) records a gradual healing: Jesus first put spittle on the blind man's eyes and, though the man's vision improves, he still cannot see clearly; only after Jesus lays hands on him does he see clearly. This is the situation of the disciples as a group: their blindness is only gradually removed. The end of the journey — not Jerusalem, but the cross — will result in clear vision (15:39).

In this Sunday's episode Bartimaeus appears 'by the roadside' — he is not yet on the road with Jesus, i.e., he is not a disciple. When he cries out, he uses the title 'Son of David' which rightly points to Jesus' ancestry and indicates that the rightful heir to the throne is now approaching his own city. Yet, it is not a title that Jesus will use of himself nor does it adequately disclose his true identity. But once approached by Jesus, Bartimaeus addresses him as 'master' [Greek = 'my teacher'], which accurately describes the relationship from a disciple's perspective. When his eyes are opened and he can see clearly, he follows Jesus on the way. This is the goal of all Jesus' laboured teaching: to open the eyes of the disciples so that they see him clearly and follow him on the road which leads to the cross.

THE MONTH OF HOLY SOULS

During the month of November, it is the long tradition of the Church that we pray for our brothers and sisters in the faith who have died. In each church there will be a Book of Remembrance. If you wish, in it you may write the names of your loved ones, relatives or friends who have died. Every Mass in each of our parish churches will be offered during November in a general way for those whose names have been written this year in the Book of Remembrance.

You may wish to have a Mass offered individually for your family members or friends who have died. To do this you are invited to use the envelopes provided for November Masses. Please record the names on the outside of the envelope and inside place the Mass offering (usually $15).

A folder of prayers, Holy Souls – A Week of Prayers is available at Masses that may assist you in your prayers.

The Holy Father's Intentions for October

Intention for evangelisation – Missionary disciples

We pray that every baptised person may be engaged in evangelisation, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavour of the Gospel.

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary.

Stewardship

“And Jesus said to him, ‘Go your way; your faith has made you well.’ And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.”

(MARK 10:52)

Faith is believing in something even though you may not be able to physically see it. Many people think that miracles don't happen anymore. This is hard, but try to focus on the positive and not the negative things in your life. When you focus on your blessings instead of your hardships, miracles will seem common. You will see God's active presence in your daily life. You will begin to develop an attitude of gratitude.

A Vocation View

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - B

A VOCATION VIEW: ‘Master Grant that I may see’.

The values we were blind to in our youth, now become clear. Blindness gives way to vision through faith in Jesus. As children of God, we are called to do good things, and to witness God's love.
