"... may they all be one"

Our mission is to be a welcoming, prayerful, embracing parish, united in Christ, strengthening the faith and transforming the spiritual life of the community. We aim to be caring and responsive, sharing the Good News, and living the values of the Gospel.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord Year C 10th April 2022

Acknowledgement of Country

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. Jesus in the passion according to Luke:

Because Luke's audience is primarily Greek in background, his portrayal of Jesus heightens Greek heroic virtues and values. Consistent with the famous Greek interest in philosophy and wisdom (Greece was home to Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, and others), Jesus has been presented as a wise man and sage teacher.

The ideal of the Greek hero confronting death was embodied by Socrates who, though innocent, was condemned to death; though he could have avoided death by renouncing his teaching, he chose not to; up to the very moment of his death he is shown teaching his disciples; he faces his execution (death by hemlock) with courage and serenity, willingly taking the cup, drinking the poison, lying down and dying peacefully.

Jesus, too, teaches his disciples to the very end, instructing them about discipleship at the last supper (22:25-30); even as he is arrested, his concern is directed to others, healing the man whose ear was cut off (22:51); walking to his crucifixion, he comforts the women of Jerusalem (23:28-31); on the cross, he extends salvation to the 'good thief' (23:39, 43). During his trial and death Luke emphasises the innocence of Jesus: Pilate declares his innocence three times (23:4,14, 22), and Herod, too, finds no guilt (23:15); finally, the centurion at the foot of the cross declares that Jesus was innocent (23:47). In Mark's gospel the words of the centurion instead reveal Jesus as 'the Son of God' (Mark 15:39). Luke shifts the focus to Jesus' innocence.

Gone from Luke's account is Jesus' anguished cry, 'Why have you abandoned me?' (Mark 15:34). Instead, Jesus prays that God might forgive those who 'know not what they do' (Luke 23:34). Mark's report, 'Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last' (Mark 15:37), makes it sound like a cry of anguish or agony. Luke reports the content of that cry: 'Jesus cried out in a loud voice, Father, into your hands I commit my spirit' (Luke 23:46). Jesus is innocent, courageous, forgiving, serene — a model for disciples.

Congratulations to Fred and Norma Gomes who celebrated 50 years of marriage on April 3rd.

Holy Week Blessings. Holy Week is the opportunity to participate in remembering, in a special way, the final days of Our Lord's life with us. It commences this Sunday, Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. The contrast between welcome and rejection is very obvious as we bless and process with palms remembering Our lord's entry into Jerusalem. Then we listen to St. Luke's account of Our Lord's passion and death. Are not our lives a procession of welcome and rejection of God's Good News, revealed in Jesus Christ?

The Sacred Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter is the most grace-filled time of our liturgical year. Why not make it your intention to attend all of the ceremonies?

Every Lenten and Holy Week Blessing.

Fr. Bernie.

The Holy Father's Intentions for April

For health care workers

We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

The month of April is dedicated to the Holy Eucharist.

Stewardship

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me."

(LUKE 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY LAND

The annual collection for the support of the church in the Holy Land will take place on Good Friday, April 15th. This collection promotes the missionary work of the Church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment and housing. Parishes, schools, orphanages and medical centres throughout the Holy Land also rely on assistance from this collection. It is also used to maintain over 70 churches and shrines associated with the life of Jesus. Last year, due to the ongoing global pandemic, it was again a difficult time for the Church and people of the Holy Land with much reduced income due to fewer pilgrims and lower church attendance around the world. In Australia, we were more fortunate and Australian Catholics donated $1,126,098 (compared to $406,023 in 2020 and $1.3 million in 2019). This year, the Holy Land will continue facing an income shortfall due to the ongoing effects of the pandemic and so we again ask Catholics around the world to be as generous as possible. Please remember the Christians of the Holy Land on Good Friday and please keep them in your prayers.

Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land envelopes are available for collection at both churches.

Place envelopes on collection plates during the ceremonies on Good Friday.

SALUBONG

You are Invited to a traditional Filipino Easter Sunday Dawn "Salubong" Celebration on 17 April 2022 at the SACRED HEART church, 118 Brighton Rd. Sandgate. It starts with a procession around the church at 4:30am followed by the re-enactment of the meeting of the Risen Lord and His Mother, Mary believed to have happened at dawn of Easter Sunday; and culminates with a Holy Mass (in English) at 5:00am to be celebrated by Rev. Fr. Saldie Resolado. There will be a choir of angels, apostles and other bible personages. Fellowship follows after the mass at the church hall. There will be Easter Egg Hunt, games for the young and the young at heart. Light breakfast will be provided but you are most welcome to bring a plate to share. THE GREEN CORNER

The Laudato Si committee has been promoting purchase of certified chocolate. One of the most well-known certifications available is the FairTrade certification. What does it mean to be certified FairTrade? Small-scale farmers and workers are among the most marginalized by the global trade system. For farmers and workers, Fairtrade means:

- Prices that aim to cover the average costs of producing their crop sustainably – a vital safety net when market prices drop
- The Fairtrade Premium – an extra sum of money paid on top of the selling price to invest in business or community projects of their choice. Many farmers have used the Premium to improve their businesses and production, replacing old trees and investing in better facilities for crop collection, storage and transport, or processing
- Decent working conditions and a ban on discrimination, forced labour and child labour
- Access to advance credit ahead of harvest time
- Being able to plan more for the future with more security and stronger relationships with buyers

So a product with the FAIRTRADE Mark means producers and businesses have met internationally agreed standards which have been independently certified, and that farmers and workers in developing countries receive better prices, decent working conditions and a fairer deal. You can learn more here: <https://www.fairtrade.net/product/cocoa>

Aldi has many FairTrade easter eggs available for purchase. But do you enjoy chocolate in more forms than just Easter eggs? You can find out about purchasing drinking chocolate and block chocolate that is certified FairTrade at this website: <https://fairtradeanz.org/what-is-fairtrade/get-involved/find-fairtrade/fairtrade-chocolate-brands>
