Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

New life

Though the exact expression 'new life' does not occur in the New Testament, we frequently use it as a kind of 'shorthand' to describe both the kind of life to which Jesus was raised and what believers have because of Jesus. This Sunday's well-known gospel story conveys the idea of 'new life' using different images and vocabulary.

Jesus' new life is described by his ability to come to the disciples despite the locked doors. Though the marks of his death are clear, he is alive nevertheless. The risen Jesus greets the disciples with 'Peace', fulfilling his promise: 'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you' (John 14:27). Seeing him, the disciples rejoice, fulfilling another promise of Jesus: 'I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice' (16:22). Finally, Jesus commissions them by sending them into the world, fulfilling yet again another promise he made when speaking to his Father: 'As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world' (17:18). The reliability of Jesus' word is stressed for a reason, as we shall soon see.

Then the risen Jesus imparts life to them when 'he breathed on them' (20:22) and gave them the Holy Spirit. In the story of creation God breathed the breath of life into the clay man to make him a living being (Gen 2:7; the same Greek word (emphusao) is used in John 20:22 and the Greek version of Genesis). The disciples, then, are made anew, or are a new creation, infused with the Holy Spirit. The presence of the Spirit is both the sign of, and the power behind, their extraordinary mission: to forgive sins. Sent, as Jesus was sent, the disciples continue his work by forgiving sins. In the same way that all that Jesus had spoken has been proved true, the disciples (and readers!) are assured that the forgiveness of sins is accomplished.

The abundant signs of new life are these: peace, recreation by the gift of the Holy Spirit, the mission ('sent'), and the forgiveness of sins.

Easter Time. The fifty days from the Sunday of the Resurrection to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast day, indeed as one 'great Sunday'. These are the days above all others in which the Alleluia is sung. The Sundays of this time of the year are considered to be Sundays of Easter.

Paid Youth Coordinator Banyo Nundah Parish. This position is presently being looked into. Contact Joachim Thetadig for more information:

March for Life. Saturday April 30th 2022. More details on page 3.

Easter Offerings. Many thanks for your generosity.

Easter Thanks. As usual, parishioners have been very generous in many ways during their preparations for and celebration of Our Lord's death and resurrection. Lent's Project Compassion donations are still being received as are the Easter Offerings. Thanks for your generosity. On behalf of the parish I thank the many helpers who gave of their time and talents to make the Lenten, Holy Week, Sacred Triduum and Easter celebrations prayerful for all participants. There are too many to name individually but special thanks to our parish sacristans, Carmel (Nundah), Val and Joan (Banyo) and those who helped them. Thanks to our musicians and singers, our readers and lay ministers of Holy Communion; thanks to our altar servers and collectors; thanks to our rosters coordinator; thanks to those who look after our church grounds; thanks to all who participated in the Sacred Triduum ceremonies.

St. Pius V School is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year. The feast of Pope St. Pius V falls on Saturday April 30th. A Mass in his honour and to celebrate the 75th anniversary will be held in the school's Multi-Purpose Hall on Wednesday May 4th at 9am. All parishioners and past students are welcome. There will be another celebration on Sunday September 11th.

Catholic Australia's Fifth Plenary Council will hold its second and final session in Sydney in July 2022. During the next few months we are asked to surround the Plenary Council with prayer. If you turn to the back page (pg. 4) of this Newsletter you will find how to participate in prayerful support. There are four themes that have arisen from the document that came out of the first session that was held in October last year. The four themes are: 1) A Deeper Communion Enriched by Diversity; 2) Ecclesial Leadership and Governance — Growing as Disciples and Servants of the Gospel; 3) To Witness to Faith, Hope and Love as Missionary Disciples in the World; 4) To Proclaim God's New Creation as People of Prayer, Healing and Hope. I am trying to source some material that interested parishioners could use for personal and group reflection. I have set aside the four Wednesday evenings of May (4, 11, 18, 25) as times for groups of parishioners to meet and discuss. More to follow.

Anzac Day Mass Monday April 25th at 7am in Corpus Christi church Nundah.

Every Easter Blessing.

The Holy Father's Intentions for April

For health care workers

We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

The month of April is dedicated to the Holy Eucharist and the Holy Spirit.

Stewardship

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'"

(JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.
