Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A 29 January 2023

Acknowledgement of Country

We, the parishioners of the Banyo Nundah Catholic Parish, acknowledge the Turrbal People who are the Traditional Custodians of this land. We pay respect to the Elders past, present and future and extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People.

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to all who attended our Parish's Australia Day Mass on Thursday morning. There was a good sized congregation in attendance for a Public Holiday. I hope that you were all able to celebrate our National Day in the true Australian spirit.

We are less than a month away from the beginning of the Season of Lent. Ash Wednesday falls on February 22. Being new to this Parish, and needing to be au fait with what has been normal practices, I thought that I would give all Parishioners an early heads-up about our Parish Lenten and Easter celebrations; you can add the events into your diaries or wall calendars. They are:

Ash Wednesday, 22 February – Blessing and distribution of Ashes: There will be two services – 9:00am, Holy Trinity Church, Banyo; 6:30pm, Corpus Christi Church, Nundah.

2nd Rite of Reconciliation, 22 March: 7:00pm, Corpus Christi Church, Nundah.

2nd Rite of Reconciliation, 29 March: 7:00pm, Holy Trinity Church, Banyo.

Palm Sunday, 1 & 2 April: Usual Sunday Mass times, however, the Blessing and Procession of Palms will only occur at the first Masses celebrated at each Mass Centre (i.e. 6:00pm Vigil, Nundah; 7:30am, Banyo).

Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, Holy Thursday, 6 April: 7:00pm, Holy Trinity Church, Banyo.

Stations of the Cross, Good Friday, 7 April: 10:00am, Holy Trinity Church, Banyo.

The Passion of the Lord, Good Friday, 7 April: 3:00pm, Corpus Christi Church, Nundah.

The Easter Vigil in the Holy Night, Holy Saturday, 8 April: 7:00pm, Corpus Christi Church, Nundah.

Easter Sunday, 9 April: 7:30am, Holy Trinity Church, Banyo; 9:30am, Corpus Christi Church, Nundah. NB: No 5:00pm Mass at Holy Trinity today (Easter Sunday).

Last weekend, I announced at our Sunday Parish Masses my intention to return the Corpus Christi Church furniture and the public address systems to their previous positions, and my desire that this should be expedited before the arrival of Archbishop Mark Coleridge to begin his three-day Parish Pastoral Visit to our Parish from 17 March (St Patrick's Day). I also asked for volunteers (perhaps, those who had helped Father Bernie relocate the furniture) to help again. Many, if not all of those men who assisted in the earlier relocation, indicated to me their willingness to help; I think that there may even have been a few extra volunteers who weren't involved in the earlier shift who approached me to offer their help. After giving it careful thought, I have decided to call a Working Bee at the Corpus Christi Church for Saturday morning, 25 February, commencing from 8:00am. Could I ask all who are prepared to assist with this Working Bee to either call or email the Parish Secretary, Debra (3324 3870 or nundah@bne.catholic.net.au) and leave your name/s with her; this way we have an indication of who and how many will be attending the Working Bee. Thank you in advance for your help.

Friends, the opening words of today's First Reading from the Prophet Zephaniah are: Seek the Lord ... Seek integrity, seek humility...' They complement the calm and warm aspirations that Jesus espouses in his Beatitudes. The Beatitudes provided solace and hope to the poor and downtrodden Jewish people who were present for his Sermon on the Mount. When Our Lord's Beatitudes are combined with Zephaniah's directions to seek the Lord, and also integrity and humility, and we apply them in our own lives, we move ever-closer to the fundamental ideals that the Lord desires for us as his disciples. Strive to be good in all things and always trust in Jesus.

May God bless you all throughout the week ahead.

The Holy Father's Intentions for January

For educators

We pray that educators may be credible witnesses, teaching fraternity rather than competition and helping the youngest and most vulnerable above all.

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus.

Stewardship

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

MATTHEW 5:3

The phrase "poor in spirit" can be confusing. Think of it in this sense - poor in spirit means depending on God's providence and not depending on our own self-reliance. Being detached from earthy things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.

A Vocation View

A VOCATION VIEW: A child's handful of pulled dandelions will bring joy to a mother. A small act of kindness will surprise the lonely heart. Who will bring joy and kindness today?

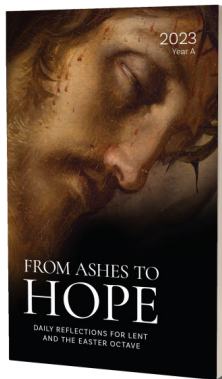

The Beatitudes

'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

LENTEN PROGRAM 2023 - FROM ASHES TO HOPE

From Ashes to Hope will nourish and nurture prayer each day during Lent and into the first week of Easter.

The daily reflections will invite the reader to contemplate a verse from the Scripture reading of the day. This reflection will be followed by a quote from Pope Francis and a simple prayer.

The daily reflections will only require a few minutes for a person to read, reflect and pray. This Lenten practice will lead the reader into a deeper reflection on their daily life. As they "look to Jesus" – in their families, workplaces and the community – they will walk as "missionary disciples" on the path to Easter, and beyond.

Reflections written by Janiene Wilson and Shane Dwyer

To place your order for a copy of the Lenten Program, please place an envelope on the collection plate with your name and Lenten Program on the front and enclose $5. You can also pop in to the parish office to purchase your copy during the week. Paid orders will be at the churches for collection the weekend after payment has been received. Thank you.

CATHOLIC LEADER DIGITAL PILOT PROJECT

Banyo/Nundah is one of 5 parishes taking part in a pilot of a new digital delivery model for The Catholic Leader.

What's happening?

- ⇒ During the 3-month pilot The Catholic Leader will cease newspaper deliveries to the parish. Instead, there will be free access to the digital version of the Leader via a QR Code in the weekly parish bulletin.
- ⇒ The QR code will take you to a Catholic Leader page with five of the top stories for the week. From there, you will be able to navigate the entire Catholic Leader website for free.
- ⇒ If you access a parish e-newsletter, there will be a Catholic Leader link that will also take you to the same landing page.

When is it happening?

- ⇒ Starting in February 2023 for a 3-month trial until April 2023

During the pilot project The Catholic Leader team will seek your feedback via a short survey to see how you like the digital delivery.

7:30pm Saturday 4 February 2023

St Francis of Assisi Catholic Church Hall, West End

Inspired by the Catholic parish dances held around Brisbane during the 1950s-1970s (ask your parents and grandparents about them!), the St Francis Social will be a good ol' fashion dance/social mixer for young adults in their 20s and 30s, with a bit of fundraising for local charities thrown in for good measure.
