The Third Sunday of Easter

14 April 2024 - Year B

Dear Parishioners,

The mid-semester school vacation comes to an end today, and the craziness of people returning home via road from their vacations is upon us again. It means that families who are attempting to maximise their vacation away from home, will be racing the clock to get back home and our State's roads will be busy and chaotic. Again I'll repeat, as I tend to do towards the end of every school vacation, please be patient and careful if you are out driving anywhere this weekend because I want you to live rather than become a road statistic.

Your Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) met again on Wednesday night. It was a good and constructive meeting. One of the topics discussed was our upcoming RCIA Program, our second such program for 2024. In recent weeks I have mentioned in my weekly Newsletter Messages that the Parish is in need of Parishioners to come forward to serve as RCIA Sponsors. I did receive one self-nomination last Sunday, plus one sponsor from a previous RCIA program has committed herself to doing so again, but we still need two more nominees. It was suggested by the PPC that I might be more successful in recruiting the required Sponsor if I was to explain the role and expectations, because there is a natural hesitancy for people to avoid committing themselves to something if their understanding of what the role entails is vague. So, by way of response to their suggestion, I offer the following information.

RCIA Sponsor Role and Expectations

A RCIA Sponsor walks beside their appointed Candidate. It is not essential that a Sponsor has completed theological studies. Nor is a person's age an issue, save to say that they should be a fully initiated Catholic (i.e. baptised, confirmed and made their first Holy Communion), and above the age of 18. They serve as a companion and a friend to their Candidate. The RCIA program has a general duration of 13 or 14 weeks. There is a weekly group meeting of all Candidates, Sponsors and Catechists during which general discussions occur on particular topics that pertain to our study textbook, At Home With God's People. These meetings generally last between 60 and 90 minutes. Each Candidate, Sponsor and Catechist has their own free copy of the textbook, so there is no personal expense involved, the only cost to any participant is their personal time. By working through the textbook, all participants will attain a more general knowledge and understanding of the Catholic Faith, and that can only be beneficial for the participants. The day and time of the week for our regular meetings will be decided by all participants at the very start, so that means that any prospective Sponsor will have a say about when the group will meet. There is one more aspect of serving as a Sponsor that I should mention, and that is that a various times (i.e. Sundays) that the Sponsor stands beside their Candidate as the Candidate is enrolled or receives minor exorcisms and, finally, when they are received into the Church and receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Being a Sponsor is a most rewarding and fulfilling duty, and I highly commend it to all Parishioners. So, please, I ask for your help in coming forward and nominating yourself to share in this rewarding experience. Please, I really need to finalise this aspect of the RCIA Program this weekend so that the Program can begin in earnest. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP

"Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and frightened..."

- LUKE 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to "see the face of Jesus" in others and to "be the face of Jesus" to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide "peace" to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a "God-centered" life and not a "self-centered" life.

A VOCATION VIEW

Third Sunday of Easter

What could convince someone to turn to God? That God became man and is the sacrifice that takes our sins away. Let us pray – Lord Jesus, make your word plain and set our hearts on fire with love when you speak. Enable us to respond to the call to be witnesses of your love.

Finally, a few reminders of what is coming-up in our Parish.

Next weekend, 20 & 21 April, the Candidates for our Parish Confirmations will be enrolled during our Sunday Masses. I urge your prayerful support of them during their journey of preparation until they are Confirmed by Bishop Tim Norton on Friday, 31 May.

Then on Thursday week, the Parish will be celebrating its annual ANZAC Day Mass on April 25. The venue for this Mass will be Corpus Christi Church, Nundah, and the Mass will commence at 7:00am in order to allow people to attend local cenotaph services. Please note there will be no Thursday Evening Mass on ANZAC day.

On Friday, 26 April, the 9:00am Nundah Mass will be an Anointing (Healing) Mass. All who attend this Mass, with the exception of children in good health, can come forward to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

I pray that the week that lies ahead of all of us will be a rewarding one. God bless!

God bless!

Fr Dan,
Parish Priest.

Project Compassion envelopes and money boxes need to be finalised this weekend please. We will then process receipts and forward them to those that have requested tax receipts. Thank you for your generosity to this year's campaign.
