Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

28th July 2024 — Year B

Dear Parishioners,

Isn't it strange how things can change in the twinkling of an eye? As you would be aware, I have just completed a period of convalescence after contracting COVID-19 for a second time. That was just last Thursday morning, 18 July. On that morning, I had come to the Parish Centre at my usual time, I composed and completed my weekend Newsletter Message, again at the usual time, I composed and completed my Sunday Mass homily (which I would not deliver), and then I drove to the Mercy Centre, Nudgee, to celebrate my monthly Mass with their community when everything changed. Certainly I had the symptoms I would associate with a severe head cold – running nose, coughing, bleary eyes – but it wasn't until I attempted to sign myself in at Emmaus, and the sign-in device registered my temperature as 36.7°, and displayed a warning in RED letters to not enter the premises, that the second real inkling that I may have COVID occurred. My first inkling came after a terrible and uncomfortable night's rest on what was State of Origin 3 night, when I thought that one explanation for my illness just might be COVID. Well, COVID was confirmed for real some 30 minutes after leaving Emmaus when I tested positive to COVID-19, and my six days of isolation (or home detention because that is what it felt like) began. I had mentioned in my Newsletter Message that I had just composed less than 2 hours prior, my hope to be present with other Parishioners and visitors from other Parishes on that coming Saturday morning's Concert-Reflection, Signs of Hope – People of Faith, by Peter Kearney, but of course, that didn't come to pass. Also, I had prepared for a Funeral Mass for the late June Boyle but that had to be handed off to another priest because of the uncertainty of when I might be well enough to return to duty. Equally, there would be other events that would have to be cancelled and/or deferred. So, by 9:45am on that fateful Thursday, I was back home and in bed beginning my journey of recovery.

I am most grateful to Debra Visser, our Parish Manager, for her management of this crisis. Debra, at my request, recontacted all those I had met in the previous few days to warn them that I had contracted the virus. She also began the task of cancelling and rescheduling appointments in my diary which would be disrupted by my period of isolation. And she began the mammoth and urgent task of finding substitute priests to celebrate our Parish's four Sunday Masses. And all of that was on top of her own work duties and an influx of more requests for funerals. Thank you Deb for your invaluable help with these tasks.

Friends, I used a portion of my isolation time as a quasi-retreat – going away to a quiet place (just as Jesus called his Disciples to do in last Sunday's Gospel passage), resting, and praying for God's help with my malady. I also found time to be reflective about necessary things that needed my attention elsewhere in the Parish – so it was a constructive time. And, from a recreational perspective, I had the unexpected bonus of being able to watch the entire televised broadcast of The Open golf tournament, and it was quite spectacular.

Well, that's enough about me, and I am delighted to be back in the land of the living once again.

I would like to congratulate the children who will be celebrating their First Reconciliation this weekend. The majority will do so on Saturday afternoon, the remainder will do so on Sunday afternoon. With this achievement under their belts, they can now progress forward to receiving their First Eucharist on the weekend of the 24 – 25 August. Again, I would request your continued prayers for these children. Thank you!

I pray that your week ahead will be a fulfilling one and that you might all be showered with God's blessings.

Fr Dan,
Parish Priest

STEWARDSHIP

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" — JOHN 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

A VOCATION VIEW

Today we are reminded by St Paul that there is one body, one Lord, one faith, and one baptism. The challenge is to 'bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience.' That is an essential part of our vocation: to lead a life worthy of these attributes.

TODAY 28TH JULY IS SEA SUNDAY.

Help us do a Stella job for seafarers.

Catholics around Australia are being asked to reflect on and support seafarers on Sea Sunday this year. "Without seafarers, we would not have most of the items we rely on for daily living," Stella Maris chairman Ray Collins said. They work tirelessly to bring into our ports products that sustain us and our economy.

"People of the sea have always been important to the Church, from Christ gathering fishermen-disciples over 2000 years ago to chaplains and volunteers supporting merchant, passenger, fishing and other seafarers today," said Bishop Promoter of Stella Maris, Tim Norton.

Donations to Stella Maris over $2 are tax-deductible and can be made online here

There is a lot of illness around at the moment.

Please remember to be diligent and consider those in our community that are at greater risk and with lower immunity to the various bugs being shared at the moment. Please use the hand sanitiser provided in our church spaces.

Acknowledgement of Country

'We, the parishioners of the Banyo Nundah Catholic Parish, acknowledge the Turrbal and Yuggera Peoples, who are the Traditional Custodians of this land. We pay respect to the Elders past, present and future and extend that respect to other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People present.

Synod24 Prayer

Creator Spirit, whose breath of life makes all things new.

We gather around Your table of communion, as many parts of one body, grounded in the hope, joy
and mission of the Risen Christ.

We open our minds and hearts, so we can be nourished and enlivened by your presence, ready to be the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We make space for the many stories of hurt, exclusion and silence of those within, and on the edges of our communities, so we may be in service of the hope, joy
and mission of the Risen Christ.

As your breath of life flows in us and through us,
may we be a vessel for your bold creativity so we may be the hands and feet of the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We ask this in the name of the Risen Christ.

Amen.

Synodality Speaker Series with Dr Maeve Louise Heaney VDMF

Synodality: Our journey together

How can synodality help us to work together as a co-responsible church on mission? How can we begin being a more synodal church, in our own parish and as an Archdiocese? As pilgrims of hope, let's walk the journey of synodality together by exploring what the word "synodality" means, its history, and what it looks like to be a synodal church on mission.
