Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

18th August 2024 — Year B

Dear Parishioners,

At all Masses throughout the Archdiocese this weekend, the Annual Catholic Campaign will be conducted. You will recall how, last Sunday, all Mass attendees were invited to collect and take home an Annual Catholic Campaign Envelope (basically one per family) and to return it this weekend. To facilitate the collection of any and all Catholic Campaign Envelopes, we will take-up a second collection immediately after the first collection (which is intended to assist with the pastoral works of the Parish) has been completed. It is best if you do ensure that your Catholic Campaign Envelopes are fully sealed before you place them in a collection basket.

Today, during Mass, in lieu of my homily, we will either watch a video of the Archbishop's Annual Catholic Campaign address to the Archdiocese (Banyo Masses) or I will read a transcript of his address during our Nundah Masses.

Thank you for your generous response to this Annual Campaign.

Next Sunday, the weekend of the 24th and 25th of August will be a big weekend in the life of our Parish. At all Masses other than the 9:30am Nundah Mass, the children in our Sacramental Program will make their First Holy Communion. But during our 9:30am Nundah Mass, our five RCIA Candidates will be welcomed into our Church community through their reception of the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and First Holy Communion, and they will emerge from that Mass as Neophytes (i.e. beginners), and their lifelong journey of living the Faith truly begins. For those children of families who would ordinarily attend the 9:30am Mass and who are preparing to make their First Holy Communion, their First Holy Communion will be delayed by a week until Sunday, 1 September (Father's Day). I would ask that you support the children making their First Holy Communion and our five RCIA Candidates in your daily prayers.

There will be a celebratory morning tea for the Neophytes who have just joined our Church and Parish community after next Sunday's 9:30am Mass in Nolan Hall. Monica Molloy has offered to supervise this function, and she has asked the Parish to request people who will be in attendance for this particular Mass to kindly bring along a plate of food suitable for a morning tea for sharing at next weekend's morning tea. I would hope that a good number of Parishioners might stay on after the Mass to personally celebrate and congratulate our five Neophytes. Thank you for your assistance with the catering.

During September, the Parish will be entering into a Parish community drive to enrol individuals and families in our new Parish registration system called 'Flocknote'. Flocknote is a database system which will replace our antiquated and now non-supported database known as PACS. Our Parish, along with the majority of Parishes within the Archdiocese will convert to Flocknote before the end of 2024. As I mentioned earlier, our Parish will commence this process next month. In the past few weekend Newsletters, you may have noticed a few promos concerning Flocknote. What the Parish is basically looking for from Parishioners is your assistance in starting the process. The first step is for households to go online using the QR Code provided and enter the basic information – full names of residents, the residential and contact particulars, and perhaps other information that I'm oblivious to at the moment. I understand that it is a simple process so please don't become overly concerned that it will be too complicated for you.

STEWARDSHIP

“Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.”

John 6:56

This line from Scripture is what ultimately separates Catholics from our Protestant brothers and sisters. Jesus is really present in the bread and wine that are consecrated at Holy Mass. It is His actual body and blood that we consume. This is the greatest gift that we can receive. The Eucharist shows us how great of love that Jesus has for each of us.

A VOCATION VIEW

God has given us living bread from heaven so we may live in Him forever. How may we give of ourselves so others may experience this gift of Christ?

Sacramental Journey News

49 children have been preparing for their First Holy Communion which is coming up on the weekends of 24/25th August (6pm, 7.30am and 5pm Mass) and 1 September (9.30am Mass). Please keep these children in your prayers as they receive Jesus for the first time.

If you would like to know more about the Sacramental Journey for next year, please contact Angela Greathead sc.nundah@bne.catholic.edu.au

For those who are not technologically savvy, our Parish staff will be able to assist you. I shall be on vacation during September when all of this will be implemented, so I trust that the Parish may rely on your support and cooperation. Thank you.

May the week ahead be a fulfilling one for you. God bless!

Fr Dan,
Parish Priest

Synod24 Prayer

Creator Spirit, whose breath of life makes all things new.

We gather around Your table of communion, as many parts of one body, grounded in the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We open our minds and hearts, so we can be nourished and enlivened by your presence, ready to be the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We make space for the many stories of hurt, exclusion and silence of those within, and on the edges of our communities, so we may be in service of the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

As your breath of life flows in us and through us, may we be a vessel for your bold creativity so we may be the hands and feet of the hope, joy and mission of the Risen Christ.

We ask this in the name of the Risen Christ.

Amen.

CELEBRATORY MORNING TEA NEXT WEEKEND — NUNDAH

As Father has announced in his newsletter message this week, there will be a celebratory morning tea following 9:30am Mass at Corpus Christi next weekend to celebrate and congratulate the RCIA candidates. Please bring a plate to share and stay and enjoy!

There is a lot of illness around at the moment.

Please remember to be diligent and consider those in our community that are at greater risk and with lower immunity to the various bugs being shared at the moment.

Please use the hand sanitiser provided in our church spaces.

ARCHDIOCESE OF BRISBANE & FLOCKNOTE — SEPTEMBER SIGNUP

For the past 3 years, the archdiocese has been working with parishes to develop more efficient and contemporary ways to reach parishioners and visitors. We are excited to announce a new partnership between Flocknote and the Archdiocese of Brisbane. Many of us are familiar with the paper parish census form; we fill these out every few years to ensure we stay up to date with who is in the parish and to keep ourselves connected to parish programs and ministries. With much more activity online today, Flocknote is the ultimate secure solution for managing communication between you and the parish. During September, the whole archdiocese is promoting a September Signup to our Flocknote, but you don't need to wait until September. Parishioners and visitors are invited to use the link or QR code below and signup and register with the parish. If you have any questions, speak with the Parish office.

Please go to <https://banyonundahcath.flocknote.com/register> or scan the QR code here to register today!

Archbishop Mark has a message for you

This week we have ordained and installed the new Bishop of Cairns, Joseph Caddy, who was Vicar General of Melbourne. It's a big leap to go from Southern Victoria to Far North Queensland, but Bishop Joe has the gifts and experience to make the leap without too much difficulty. He has long involvement in social welfare and for many years was a prison chaplain. So he has mud on the boots. He also has an easy way with people of all backgrounds, and that will stand him in good stead. But then on top of all the pressures he's facing as he settles into a new home and role, the helicopter crashes into the hotel just across the road from the cathedral where many of us were to stay. Panic descended on Cairns as they scrambled to find other accommodation for the guests. But somehow it all worked out. As I said to Joe, as a bishop you have to expect the unexpected.
