The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

22nd June, 2025 — Year C

Dear Parishioners,

On Wednesday evening, the Archdiocese received the good news that Pope Leo XIV had accepted the resignation of Archbishop Mark Coleridge and appointed his successor who is Bishop Shane Mackinlay, Bishop of Sandhurst. Archbishop Mark will continue on the Apostolic Administrator of our Archdiocese until Archbishop-elect Mackinlay's installation in St Stephen's Cathedral on 11th September. We are asked to keep our Archbishop-elect Mackinlay in our prayers.

Last Saturday evening, the Parish joined with the newly ordained Archdiocesan Priest, Fr Sean Woods, and his family, to give thanksgiving to the Lord for the grace of his acceptance of the Lord's calling to ordained ministry. It was an uplifting experience for all who attended the Mass. The supper that followed, was also a joyful celebration.

Fr Sean, at the end of the evening's events, mentioned quietly to me his appreciation for all the work that the Parish had done to make his Thanksgiving celebrations so memorable for him.

I would now like to take the opportunity to again thank all who had any role, even in the minutest way, for offering your services and making Fr Sean's Thanksgiving celebrations so memorable for him.

This weekend marks the end of our Parish Festival week. It ends with a crescendo - our Annual Corpus Christi Street Procession passing through the streets of Nundah Village. Our procession has always intended to complement the major march that occurs later in the afternoon that departs and returns to St Stephen's Cathedral, but there is a validity to our own march because Corpus Christi Sunday is our Patronal Feast Day. Our march also is an opportunity for you, as Parishioners, together with Catholics from our neighbouring Deanery Parishes to publicly bear witness to Christ. It also affords a less difficult alternative (e.g. travelling to the city and expensive car parking fees) for all.

STEWARDSHIP

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

"They all ate and were satisfied.

And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (LUKE 9:17)

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

A VOCATION VIEW

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus asked, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" What do you have to offer to the hungry world? (Luke 9:11-17)

Funerals with Faith - Caring for Your Family

Now, I'm aware that I have been 'banging the drum' a little over the past fortnight (in Newsletter Messages and in end-of-Mass announcements) about vehicle parking in the Nundah church car park for those who will attend the 9:30am Mass there today, but it is important that I do so one final time. I do so because I am mindful of the general safety of all the marchers who will participate in today's Corpus Christi Street Procession. So, please, if you WILL NOT BE participating in the Procession, DO NOT PARK your vehicle in the car park today. Please park your vehicle by the kerb in one of the nearby streets. Priority will be given within the car park to form-up the marchers, so, therefore know, that should you choose to park within the car park and you will not be marching, your vehicle will be prevented from departing the car park UNTIL AFTER the marchers move off in procession. And that will be around the 10:45am mark, so I thank you for your understanding and patience.

For those who will find the march to strenuous for them to manage, the Parish Centre will be open to allow you, in airconditioned comfort, to watch the procession depart and return to the Nundah church, and then to join in with the festivities.

Thank you also both to the marchers and to all who have worked behind the scenes to make our second Annual Street Procession a success.

Our Corpus Christi celebrations will conclude with a short period of adoration followed by benediction which will commence at 11:20am. Food and drinks will be served in the Parish Centre upon the return of the marchers to the church.

May the Lord continue to bless you throughout the week ahead.

Peter's Pence Collection is next weekend.

The Peter's Pence Collection gives Catholics in Australia an opportunity to join in communion with the Catholic faithful throughout the world in support of the charitable works of the Holy See.

The Peter's Pence Collection is an annual collection of the Catholic Church around the world.

The collection allows the Holy Father to respond to the most needy throughout the world, to offer timely, effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters.

Banyo Nundah Parish will be participating at all Masses next weekend, we take this collection up as a retiring collection.

Acknowledgement of Country

'We, the parishioners of the Banyo Nundah Catholic Parish, acknowledge the Turrbal and Yuggera Peoples, who are the Traditional Custodians of this land. We pay respect to the Elders past, present and future and extend that respect to other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People present.

Sacramental Journey News

Congratulations to the Confirmation Candidates who received their Confirmation on Friday night at Corpus Christi Church, Nundah. May the Holy Spirit guide them throughout their lives.

This week there is a Parent Information session for the upcoming sacraments of Penance and Eucharist. Preparation for these sacraments is for students in Year 4 or older and who have already been confirmed.

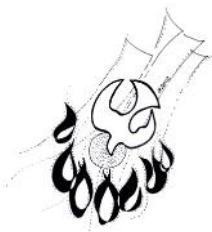

Attendance at a parent information session is essential to learn about enrolment and the preparation, which will be slightly different this year. Workbooks and folders will be available at these sessions.

Wed 25 June 7-8pm or Thurs 26 June 3.30-4.30pm Parish Office – Nundah

Parish Festival Events

Last weekend the community at Holy Trinity Church at Banyo held a winter brunch after the 7.30am. They raised $80 for Banyo Vinnies from the proceeds of raffles held on the morning.

Corpus Christi Feast

This weekend we will again be holding a Corpus Christi Procession after 9.30am Mass on 22nd June.

Those attending are asked to bring a plate to share for morning tea.

Planned Giving Envelopes Collect from this weekend!

The envelopes will be in the churches from this weekend. If you don't see yours, they may have been sent to the other church. These can be used from the next campaign period which begins in July.

If you are wishing to move across to an automated payment or are now using the Tap N Go machine, please let us know. Thanks Debra and Carmel.

BIOGRAPHY OF ARCHBISHOP-ELECT SHANE MACKINLAY

Bishop Shane Mackinlay was born in Melbourne in 1965 and attended the local government school until his family moved to Ballarat in 1975. In Ballarat, he was a student at St Francis Xavier Primary School and St Patrick's College, where he was dux in 1982. He has two siblings and is the uncle of five nieces and nephews.

He studied for the priesthood at Corpus Christi College, Clayton, completing theology studies at Catholic Theological College and a degree in physics at Monash University. As a deacon, he served in the parish of Warrnambool, before being ordained as priest for the Ballarat Diocese in 1991, and serving in the parishes of Hamilton, Colac and Ballarat Cathedral. He then undertook graduate studies in philosophy at the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium, where he completed a Master's degree and a Doctorate. His doctoral thesis was published by Fordham University Press.

Bishop Mackinlay was administrator of the Casterton parish for six months and parish priest of the Sebastopol parish for four years. He was parish priest of the Bungaree parish from 2005 until his appointment as bishop; from 2009, he also provided weekend sacramental ministry for the neighbouring parish of Gordon.

For several years, he taught philosophy at Australian Catholic University, Ballarat. Most of his teaching has taken place at Catholic Theological College, Melbourne, where he was appointed Master in 2011. The following year, he was appointed Associate Professor by the University of Divinity.

From 2012 to 2014 he was the spokesperson for the Catholic Church during the Victorian Parliamentary Inquiry into the Handling of Child Abuse by Religious and other Non-Government Organisations.

He was secretary to the Bishop of Ballarat from 1998 to 2001, and was the chairperson of the Bishop's Advisory Council of the Ballarat diocese from when it was established in 2009. He was a member of the College of Consultors of the Ballarat diocese on two occasions and also served six years as Chairman of the two funds that provide support to the active and retired priests of the Ballarat diocese.

Pope Francis appointed Bishop Mackinlay as the eighth Bishop of Sandhurst on 23 July 2019. Since then, he has been elected as Vice-President of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia and one of the Australian delegates to the forthcoming Synod for a Synodal Church. In 2019, he was asked to join the Methodist-Roman Catholic International Commission, and in 2022 was appointed as its Co-Chair.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your Son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope
for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

Franciscus

Exciting new for our Parish—we are hosting a Christian Art Prize Competition.

The Australian Christian Art Prize welcomes entries for the inaugural prize, to be held in Brisbane in 2025. The Prize is open to all works of art that address Christian themes. These include any portrayals of scenes from the life of Christ, the Bible or the lives of the saints; Christian spirituality; Christian values and life; and God's creation and promises to humanity. We encourage you to bring your talent, creativity and passion to this theme.

Entries are welcomed from artists from Australia and overseas. To enter, please go to:
<http://www.eventbookings.com/b/event/australian-christian-art-prize-2025> or use the QR code.

For more information, look for our new format newsletter available through Flocknote. This includes a video promo with Archbishop Mark Coleridge talking about art and religion.
