I Do – I Do – I Do – I Do

For more than 50 years, World Wide Marriage Encounter has helped over 3.5 million couples in almost 100 countries unlock the power of their relationships with new ways to do the "I Do." The Marriage Encounter experience helps a couple listen, share and connect more deeply. There's no group discussion. It's just about two people learning to be the best, most loving and thriving couple possible.

This weekend we will hear about Marriage Encounters at our weekend Masses.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year C

3rd August, 2025

Vocations Awareness Week

Dear Parishioners,

As we continue walking together in faith, I'm pleased to share with you our Parish's Annual Financial Report for 2024, which is now available.

- If you receive our weekly Flocknote E-Newsletter, the Report is included as an attachment.
- If you're not yet registered for Flocknote, printed copies are available near the Parish Newsletter stands at both entrances to the church.

I hope you find this Report informative and reassuring. On page 4, you'll find a graph showing the average monthly Mass collections. Sadly, our income has returned to levels we last saw in 2021 — perhaps reflecting the cost-of-living challenges many households face today.

Mass collections remain our parish's main source of income, supporting the ministries and services that touch the lives of so many — from preparing children for the Sacraments to pastoral care for our seniors and outreach programs for those in need. Contributions come through various means: loose donations, envelopes, direct debit, credit cards, and our Tap & Go machines.

Earlier this week, our Parish Finance Council met to review the financials for the first half of 2025. They noted that our collections are currently $15,000 below our modest budget. Should this trend continue, we may end the year down by around $30,000, returning us to levels experienced during the height of COVID-19. The Council is monitoring this closely, and we remain hopeful, trusting in your ongoing support and generosity.

On a joyful note, our 2025 Penance and First Eucharist Candidates have reached the midpoint of their Sacramental journey. The children will make their First Confessions this weekend, and I sincerely thank Angela Greathead for her loving guidance. Please keep these young ones in your prayers as they prepare for their First Holy Communion on 30–31 August.

We're also blessed to welcome Cecilia Formby from Marriage Encounter at this weekend's Masses. She'll speak about the beauty and importance of marriage, and ways couples can strengthen their bond in light of God's grace. In a time when marriage is often misunderstood or undervalued, her words will be a reminder of its sacred place in our lives and community.

May the Lord bless you richly in the days ahead — with peace in your homes, love in your hearts, and joy in your journey of faith.

Warmest regards,

Fr Dan

STEWARDSHIP

*"Take care to guard against all greed,
for though one may be rich, one's life
does not consist of possessions."*

LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

A VOCATION VIEW

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

This National Vocation Awareness Week, Jesus calls us to be generous with the gifts that he has given. When we share our treasures with others, we will have a true treasure in heaven.
(Luke 12:13-21)
