Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year C 5th October, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Catholic Missions Month

October marks Catholic Missions Month — a time to honour the courageous work of Catholic missionaries around the world. Even in our technological age, their mission remains vital. At baptism, each of us was commissioned to be evangelisers. Yet some Catholics live this call in remote and often dangerous regions, where identifying as Christian can place their lives at risk.

It takes extraordinary courage, zeal, and faith to embrace the vocation of missionary life. These men and women embody Christ's command to love our neighbour, offering sacrificial service that transforms the communities they serve.

The Holy Spirit continues to stir hearts toward missionary work. While not all are called to go into isolated or perilous places, we are all invited to support those who do — through prayer and financial assistance. Our contributions help missionaries survive and equip them with the resources they need to carry out their ministry.

On the weekend of October 18–19, we'll have the opportunity to support the Annual Catholic Missions Appeal. While we may not walk beside our missionary brothers and sisters in the field, we can stand with them in spirit and generosity.

School Term 4 Begins

Queensland's mid-semester break concludes this Monday, and we warmly welcome back our parish school staff and students on Tuesday for the start of Term 4. May they return refreshed and ready for the final stretch of the school year.

As families travel home this weekend, road traffic will increase. Please take extra care if you're heading out — your safety matters.

The Sporting World

Whether or not you're a sports enthusiast, it's hard to miss Brisbane's remarkable achievements this season across AFL, NRL, and NRLW.

Last Saturday, the Brisbane Lions were crowned 2025 AFL Premiers — congratulations to them!

Today, the Brisbane Broncos NRL and NRLW teams compete in their respective Grand Finals. We wish them every success.

Next Sunday brings the Bathurst 1000 motor race, and soon we'll enter cricket season with Test, One-Day, and T20 matches.

While these events may captivate many, let us be mindful not to elevate sport to idolatry. May Jesus remain our true priority, even amid the excitement.

Benediction

May the Lord continue to shower you with His abundant blessings throughout the week ahead.

Fr Dan, Parish Priest

STEWARDSHIP

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control."

Stewardship

2 TIMOTHY 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

A VOCATION VIEW

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time – C/1

The Spirit of God makes us strong, loving and wise. How will you use these gifts to serve the gospel? Consider being a sister, brother, priest or deacon (2 Timothy 1:6-8. 13-14)

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

For collaboration between different religious traditions. Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity.
