Prison Sunday

Dear Parishioners,

I write to share that I will undergo surgery this Thursday, 13 November — a parathyroidectomy requiring a short hospital stay and recovery period. I expect to resume full pastoral duties by Saturday, 22 November.

Mass and Ministry Arrangements

All weekday Masses and Benediction services from 13–21 November are cancelled. Clergy have kindly agreed to cover next weekend's four Sunday Masses and Saturday morning baptisms at Banyo.

If you need a priest during my absence:

- For non-urgent matters, please contact our Parish Manager.
- For urgent needs, you may reach out to
 - ⇒ Geebung Parish (3265 6523) or
 - ⇒ Mother of Mercy Parish (3268 3040).

As with any surgery, there are risks. But with your prayers and the surgeon's skill, I trust all will go well.

RCIA Update

Last Saturday, I met with our Catechumens, Candidates, Catechists, and Sponsors. With nine participants enrolled, we've formed two groups:

- Saturdays at 9:00am in the Parish Centre
- Mondays at 6:00pm in the same venue

Thank you to all who have generously offered to accompany our candidates as Sponsors and Catechists. Please keep all 21 participants in your prayers as we begin our fourth RCIA program in two years.

Blessing

May the Lord bless you abundantly in the week ahead. I look forward to rejoining you from Saturday, 22 November.

Fr Dan,
Parish Priest

STEWARDSHIP

"Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells within you?"
1 CORINTHIANS 3:16

Simply remembering that we are "temples of the Holy Spirit" should make our daily decision making relatively easy. If we truly want to imitate Jesus, then our words and actions should reflect the love, mercy, and forgiveness that flow from His Sacred Heart. Try it for one week. Try to remember that we are temples of the Holy Spirit and see how it affects the way that you live.
