Second Sunday of Easter — Year A

12th April 2026

Divine Mercy Sunday

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for the wonderful participation in our Easter Triduum and Easter Sunday liturgies. This year's attendance was the strongest of the four Easters I have celebrated with you — a very encouraging sign for our parish life.

Our Easter Vigil was a particular joy: beautiful music, wholehearted participation, and the reception of our seven new members — Ashlee Kresevic, Isabelle Beattie, Hayley Freestun, Michelle Freestun, Rebecca Ibarra, Leon Hansen and Tevita Tolo. Although the Vigil was a little longer this year, it was a truly grace-filled celebration. My sincere thanks to everyone who assisted across all our Holy Week and Easter ceremonies, including the Good Friday Stations of the Cross. Your generosity made a real difference.

This weekend, the Second Sunday of Easter — traditionally known as Low Sunday — is also celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This year, our Parish is observing it a little differently. Please note that there is no 5:00pm Mass at Banyo this Sunday. Instead, our Divine Mercy program will be:

- | | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 2:00pm | Blessing of the Divine Mercy Image |
| 2:05–2:55pm | Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
Sacrament of Penance |
| 3:00pm | The Hour of Mercy: St Faustina's Praises and the Divine
Mercy Chaplet |
| 3:10pm (approx.) | Holy Mass |

Finally, I want to acknowledge with gratitude the dedication of our six Sponsors — Kelson Sykes, Lyndal Dashwood, Conor Nesbit, Christine Stewart, Jason Waters and Luanna Moors — and our four Catechists — Deacon Kelemete Ta'ale, Fred and Norma Gomes, and Rosemary Woods. Your commitment to accompanying our RCIA candidates since November has been a true service to the Church. I hope we may work together again when the next RCIA journey begins on Saturday, 27 June.

May the Risen Lord continue to bless you richly in this Easter season. God bless you all.

Parish Priest

A PRAYER IN TIMES OF DISASTER

God with us in light and darkest days –

We pray for all impacted by earthquake, flood or other disaster:
survivors, displaced people, loved ones, lost ones.

Where there's life, let there be rescue.

Where there's need, let there be care.

Where there's loss, let there be consolation.

We pray for all on the ground, responding with urgency:
emergency workers, medics, people donating food and blood.

Where there's fear, let there be hope.

Where there's confusion, let there be clarity.

Where there's weariness, let there be rest.

As we pray for people directly affected, we pray also for ourselves:
aware, far-off, watching on.

Where there's compassion, let there be action.

Where there's love, let there be solidarity.

Where there's concern, let there be generosity.

God with us in light and darkest days –
hear our prayer.

Amen.

Caritas Australia Lebanon Emergency Appeal

Lebanon is facing one of its most severe humanitarian crises in years, as a sudden surge in violence and mass evacuation orders force families to flee with nothing. Within 24 hours, Caritas Lebanon reported 667,831 newly displaced people seeking safety. Despite the volatile environment, Caritas Lebanon teams are operating across seven governorates, delivering food, essential items, healthcare, psychosocial support, water and hygiene assistance, and protection services. Let us stand in solidarity with our partners in Lebanon.

A Message of Gratitude and Invitation

As Chairperson of the Banyo/Nundah Parish Consultative Council, I wish to express our heartfelt gratitude for the overwhelmingly beautiful attendance across all our Holy Week and Easter liturgies. The prayerful presence of so many parishioners—young and old, long time members and newcomers alike—was a visible sign of faith alive and flourishing in our parish.

Together, we journeyed through Lent and Holy Week, entering deeply and prayerfully into Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection. Our churches were filled not only with people, but with reverence, generosity, joy, and a strong sense of belonging. These celebrations reminded us that being Church is not just something we do on special occasions, but something we live together as the Body of Christ.

As we continue through the Easter season, we warmly encourage everyone to remain connected to our parish community. One way to do this is by continuing to gather for weekly Mass, where we are nourished by the Word, strengthened by the Eucharist, and supported by one another.

We also invite parishioners to consider becoming more involved in parish life—whether through our liturgical ministries, pastoral and social groups, outreach and service opportunities, or by offering your time and gifts as a volunteer. Even small acts of participation help build a welcoming, vibrant parish where faith can grow and flourish.

Details about upcoming parish events, ministries, and volunteering opportunities are shared regularly through our parish newsletter and Flocknote communications, and we encourage you to take a moment to see how you might become involved.

Thank you for your faith, your presence, and your ongoing commitment to our parish. May the joy and hope we shared throughout Lent and Easter continue to inspire us as we walk forward together as a living, faith filled community.

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" JOHN 20:19

Are you a good steward by making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too – just as God, Our Father, sees us.

A VOCATION VIEW

Divine Mercy Sunday

It is only through people like you that others will be able to say: "We have seen the Lord." With the resurrection to empower you and with Jesus to lure you, you too can inspire others who have not seen to believe.
